

Curriculum Vita

Adrian A. Estes

---

---

Education

- 1996 – 1999            Doctoral (Safety Management)
Dissertation: “Controlling the Cost of Safety in Health Care Facilities.”
Greenwich University, Hilo, Hawaii
- 1993 – 1995            Master of Arts (Occupational Safety and Health Management)
Thesis: “The Safety Professional’s Role in Construction.”
Vermont College of Norwich University, Montpelier, Vermont
- 1990 – 1992            Bachelor of Science (Liberal Arts)
University of the State of New York, Albany, New York

Professional Registration and Certifications:

- Registered Nurse, Arizona RN089782
- Registered Safety Professional, RSP0101
- Registered Environmental, Officer REO0105
- Registered Ergonomic Specialist RES0201
- American Society of Safety Engineers – member since 1997
- RigPass 00157

Experience:

- 2007- Present            Training Consultant
RODECH Training Services Link Intl Inc
310 3rd Floor Guadalupe Commercial Complex, Edsa Makati City Philippines
- Responsible in handling the modules for OSHA and IBOEHS Program.
Develops safety program for international clients
Represent the organization in conducting international training program
- 2000 – Present            Director
International Board of Environmental Health and Safety, Inc.
Tucson, Arizona
- Responsible for managing certification accreditation for environmental and safety officers. Editor of For Their Safety, newsletter.
- Coordinate with various organizations for the conducting of environmental and safety certification preparatory programs worldwide and nationally.
- Authorized instructor for Occupational Safety and Health Administration programs:
Construction 10 hour and 30 hour programs
General Industry 10 hour and 30 hour programs

Consult individual companies as needed:

- Wellsafe (2006) – oil platform off-shore & pipeline on-shore:
employee physical & health evaluation survey
- Lydig Construction (2006) – employee of subcontractor suing general contractor: expert witness.
- David Webb (2006) – ISO 14001 audit team member
- Budweiser – distributors (2006) – ergonomics
- Otis Elevator (2002-2005) – ergonomics

Speaker

- Associated General Contractors (2006) – Safety Officer’s Role in Construction
- Alaska Governor’s Safety Conference (2005) – The 5 Keys to Safety
- Numerous other engagements.

- 1995 – 1999
Director of Safety Education and Training
NESH Institute - Tucson, Arizona
Responsible for conducting commercial jobsite safety inspections, accident investigations, development of safety programs, conducting safety training, coordinating with subcontractors and the supervision of alcohol and other drugs program for various clients.
- 1992 – 1995
U.S. Army Corp of Engineers – LaSalle, Illinois
Responsible for conducting safety inspections of lock and dam operations, accident investigations and conducting safety training.
- 1990 – 1992
Private Duty Nursing – Eugene, Oregon
- 1970 – 1990
U.S. Army – Worked and managed various medical facilities, worldwide; Vietnam, Japan, Korea, Germany and United States.

Seminars:

- The Ergonomic Program (3-day), 2009
- Managing Safety for Oil and Gas Upstream Operations, 2009
- Successfully Contesting an OSHA Citation: Using the Five Keys to Safety, 2006.
- Safety Officer’s Role in Construction, 2006
- Making Safety Work for YOU™ 2004,
- Construction Ergonomics, 2004.
- The Safety Officer – 2 day certification review program for Construction, Healthcare, and General Industry; 2001-present

Publications:

- The Ergonomics Specialist, IBOEHS 2009.
- Occupational Safety and Environmental Issues, IBOEHS 1999. Revised 2009
- The Environmental Officer, IBOEHS 2000.
- The Safety Officer, IBOEHS 2000
- Editor “For Your Safety” quarterly IBOEHS newsletter.
- Numerous articles for various publications 2000 – Present.

References:

Richard Burton, RSP
D L Withers Construction
(623) 398-5776

Sharon Powers, RSP
Powers Safety Services
(520) 591-6647

Dennis Leonard, RSP
Kiewit Pacific
(925) 686-3030 ext. 207